Q. And where do you currently reside at?

> MR. GOODMAN: You don't have to give a street address. If you want to state the borough, that's okay.

A. Okay, I live in New Medford, Connecticut.

Q. What steps did you take in 11 preparation for your deposition today?

A. I mean, none. I came over here, 13 they told me that it was a couple of 14 questions that I have to answer. That's all.

Q. Okay. And when you say, "they," 16 you are referring to your attorneys?

A. I am referring to my supervisor, 18 Stavros Orsaris.

Q. I am sure Mr. Goodman has told you 20 this already, but I am not going to be asking 21 about anything you talked about with your 22 attorneys, because that information is 23 privileged. I just want to know about the 24 general steps you took to prepare for today's 25 deposition. Do you understand?

A. Well, they explained to me that the 5 customer -- what the customer is saying, 6 basically. That it's a situation. She says 7 that she never purchased a vehicle, that she 8 never went to the dealership and, I mean, so 9 on and so forth. That's the reason why we 10 here today, to find out what really happened 11 on that particular sale.

Q. What is your understanding of -- 12 Q. Okay. Prior to this lawsuit, have 13 you reviewed the documents in the deal 14 jacket?

15 A. I didn't review the documents. I 16 took a look of the documents to see if I can 17 get a better understanding of what's going 18 on. Remember, this happened over two years 19 ago, so...

20 Q. Sure. So you don't have -- do you 21 have any memory of what happened on those 22 days, other than from your review of the 23 documents?

24 A. Not -- not really, per se, for this 25 sale.

Q. Sure, no, let me rephrase.

When you say that -- that you're not evaluating the credit of customers and 5 that's the lenders who are doing that, are 6 you saying that the finance managers don't 7 evaluate the credit of customers, or that the 8 dealership, as a whole, doesn't evaluate the 9 credit of customers?

> MR. GOODMAN: Yeah, that's object to form.

A. I am just -- I don't understand 13 your question.

Q. Sure. Does anyone at the 15 dealership evaluate the credit of customers 16 for consumer loans or leases?

> MR. GOODMAN: Object to the form.

A. Before the deal goes to my office, 20 they round the credit, yes, the sales manager 21 round the credit and prepares for submission 22 to the lenders, which is what I do. They 23 have the process, which is between Stavros

24 and sales manager. I am talking about me, 25 per se, I do not evaluate or make any

1 A. When the customer goes to the 2 3 dealership, and they are willingly there because they want to purchase a vehicle, then, they handwrite a credit application. 6 That credit application has that customer personal information. It's signed and dated by the customer. And that gives authorization for us to pull credit. 10 Q. You can turn to Defendant's 95,

24 written authorization for consumers credit

please. Next page. And if you look at 11 12 bullet fifteen on this page, it refers to training in, quote, "proper usage 13 requirements and restriction and security requirements," end quote. Do you see that? 15

A. Yes. That's number fifteen?

Q. Uh-huh.

MR. GOODMAN: Can I see that?

> Hang on one second. Okay, go ahead.

22 Q. So employees of Victory Mitsubishi 23 have to log into Dealer Track and fill out a 24 form, prior to pulling a credit report,

5 laptop, is that separate from the computer at 6 the podium, and the computer in his office? 7 A. It's a laptop, yes.

8 Q. Okay. So let's talk about the work

9 that you do at Victory Mitsubishi.

10 When does your role in the sales 11 process begin? 12

A. After the customer agree to 13 purchase a vehicle, they have seen the 14 vehicle, they like the vehicle, they ready to 15 apply for financing for that vehicle that 16 they came in to look for. That's when the 17 customer goes to my office and we, you know, 18 we take a look of what the lenders have to 19 offer for that particular customer. We go

20 over the numbers together, we go over their

21 down payment, you know, sales taxes, I ask 22 the customer, "you okay with the car, you

23 happy with the car, did you look the vehicle,

24 we going to apply for financing?" You know,

25 and then that's basically the process.

Q. Do you ever work with the other 6 finance managers on a sale or a deal?

7 A. Can you be a little bit more 8 specific?

Q. Sure. Let's say, you have a 10 consumer come into the dealership, and you 11 are entrusted in buying a vehicle, and they

12 want to arrange financing for the vehicle,

13 would there ever be a situation where more

14 than one finance manager would work on

15 arranging that financing? 16

A. No.

17 Q. Okay. So, essentially, each of the 18 finance managers deals with certain 19 customers. You get a certain customer 20 assigned to you as a finance manager; is that 21 correct?

22 A. When you say, "a certain customer," 23 what you trying to imply by that?

24 Q. Sure. I think -- actually, I think 25 it's clear. I will just withdraw that

7 8 contract there ready for them to look at at 9 that stage? 10 A. The customer is entitled to a blank

11 copy of the retail sales contract. They have 12 to review, before anything. Then, if the 13 customer agrees, then, we move on to the next 14 part.

15 Q. If the consumer wasn't happy with 16 the terms, for example, if they didn't like 17 the interest rate that they were receiving on 18 the deal, what would happen next?

19 A. Well, if the customer is not okay 20 with the terms and what the lenders have to provide, then, the process stops right there. 22 And we try to look for better financing. If 23 cannot get any better financing, then, that's 24 all.

25 Q. When you say, "look for better Yessica K. Vallejo

9 Q. And that process didn't change10 during the COVID-19 pandemic; is that11 correct?

12 A. No, it was the same process since I13 start working there.

Q. Okay. And so when the shutdown order was given at the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, were you laid off at any point, even temporarily?

18 A. When they shut off all the19 businesses, yeah, we were closed down, I20 believe, yeah.

Q. And by May 30 of 2020, you were operating by appointment only; is that correct?

24 A. That is correct.

Q. And how long would you be working

MR. GOODMAN: Object to form, but go ahead.

A. I mean, I don't know, to be honest with you. Probably what I believe is after the customer sees the car they looking for,

7 test drive, look at it, make sure they like8 it, if they ready to apply for financing,

9 ready to buy, they love the car, they want10 the car, then, they move on to the next

11 process, which is fill that credit

12 application.

13 Q. Would you ever help a customer fill 14 out a credit application?

15 A. No.

Q. Once a customer has filled a credit application, that information is used to pull the customer's credit report; is that

19 correct?

A. That is correct. If it's signed and dated, yes.

Q. And I think you may have said this before, but would you ever be the one to pull the credit report with the information from 25 the credit application?

	6	If it was not her, it was somebody trying to
	7	imperson [sic] her, but it was definitely
	8	somebody there.
	9	Q. Well, I guess I am a little bit
	10	confused. What exactly do you remember
	11	happening on May 30, 2020?

- A. There was a person there buying a 13 vehicle, and they bought the vehicle, and 14 they went home with their vehicle.
- Q. Just one person? 15
- 16 A. It was her and her brother, as they 17 call each other, buying a car.
- Q. Was there anyone else? 18
- 19 A. No.

12

- Q. Was that the first time you had 20 21 ever seen Farah Jean François?
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. And that was May 30, correct?
- 24 A. That was the first time that they 25 went to the dealership.

Q. And what do you remember about 2

3 that?

4 MR. GOODMAN: Object to 5 form.

6 A. Nothing in particular. Like I said, it was just another transaction during 7 the day, and customer purchase a vehicle, and 9 went home with their vehicle.

10 Q. Did you talk to her?

11 A. I talk to her, I believe, if it was 12 her, or whoever was trying to imperson [sic] 13 her.

14 Q. Sure, let's leave aside the issue 15 right now about whether it was her or whether 16 it was someone trying to impersonate her.

Did you speak with that person?

A. That person was definitely in my office because I cannot sell a vehicle to 20 somebody that is not there. So...

- Q. I understand.
- 22 A. Yes.

17

21

- 23 Q. Sorry, go ahead.
- A. If it wasn't her, it was somebody 24
- 25 else trying to imperson [sic] her. That I

Q. Sure. I understand what the 4 policies are, as you have -- as you have

5 stated them. What I am asking is, is if you remember talking to her, not whether you knew you would have talked to her.

8 But do you, specifically, remember 9 talking to her?

10 A. I, specifically, don't recall the 11 sale. But if they purchased a car, and I was 12 the finance manager, it was somebody there.

That I can assure you.

Q. Sure. So you wouldn't remember

15 what was, specifically, said on that day,

16 correct?

17 A. No, but based on how sales go, you 18 already know what we discuss. We discuss the basics of what the finance manager does when 20 they have the customer in front of them.

21 Q. And what do you remember about her 22 voice?

23 A. I do not recall her voice. That

24 was over two years ago.

25 Q. And do you remember who was in your office when she came into your office?

A. There was a lady and it was a male.

Q. Was there anyone else who worked at Victory Mitsubishi, in your office, when they came in?

7 A. No.

Q. And how would you describe her? 8

A. I cannot describe her.

Q. Okay. Could you describe the man 10

11 who was with her?

12 A. I cannot describe them.

13 Q. Do you remember anything about them

14 -- the color of their hair, or their race, or 15 height?

16 A. I remember they were both African 17 American.

18 Q. Do you remember if they were dark skinned or light skinned? 19

20 A. No.

21 MR. GOODMAN: Object to the 22 form; go ahead.

23 Q. Do you remember anything about their -- the way they wore their hair? 24

25 A. Sorry, repeat the question.

Page 117 Page 119 Yessica K. Vallejo 1 Yessica K. Vallejo 1 A. Yes, it could be that it was 2 2 form; go ahead. 3 3 finalized that day, but like I told you, they A. No. came back to resign for a reason that I don't 4 Q. Okay. And, generally, when a recall exactly, but they did come back to the consumer needs to resign documents, what 6 dealership. documents are they resigning? 7 Q. During the COVID-19 pandemic, did 7 A. Everything. The loan contract, 8 Capital One ask you to have any consumers bill of sale, and buyer's order. 9 return to the dealership to resign documents 9 Q. What about credit application? 10 for the sale of a vehicle? 10 A. If there's any change on employment A. It could be. The pandemic affected 11 or, the customer change their residency or 11 12 a lot of things in the car business or car 12 their phone number, then, you resign a credit 13 industry, per se. The book values were going application. If everything stated by 14 up and down, you know, sometimes the customer on the credit application is still 15 structure of the deal changes, the down 15 the same, there's no need to resign a new 16 credit application. Sometimes if you 16 payment, the customer probably, you know, 17 change the down payment. That changes the 17 changing the date, the date of the deal 18 structure of the deal. So it could be any 18 changes because the customer signing on a 19 reason for the customer to have to come back 19 different date, then, you resign a credit application, but you don't make no change in 20 to the dealership and they resign a final 21 contract. Which is something completely 21 the credit application without the 22 normal. 22 customers's approval, or customer telling you 23 23 that there's been a change in that period of Q. Okay. So you say that "could have 24 happened," but do you have any memory of 24 time. 25 Capital One, specifically, telling you to do 25 Q. Okay. And if a consumer told you Page 118 Page 120 Yessica K. Vallejo Yessica K. Vallejo 1 2 that during the pandemic? that they got a raise at their job, for

MR. GOODMAN: Object to the 3 4 form. I lost the thread here. Go 5 ahead, if you understand it. 6 A. Like I said, it's something that 7 can happen not only with Capital One, with any lender. If there's any reason, even if misspell on name, you have to resign a 10 contract. So it could be anything.

Q. Sure.

18

A. Remember, these are approvals with 13 stipulations. Lender have the final -- the 14 final say in the deals. We were not the 15 lender. You understand? So we don't make 16 any calls, any judgment calls, none of that. 17 Everything we got to by what the lender says. Q. Sure. But do you have any memory 19 of Capital One contacting you by e-mail, or 20 letter, or by phone saying, "Hey, you need 21 all of the customers who have received 22 financing through us for vehicles to come 23 back in and resign documents?" Do you 24 remember anything like that?

MR. GOODMAN: Objection to example, would that be a reason why you would 4 fill out another credit application?

5 A. Absolutely. Remember, the credit application is a document that the customer is stating states that that's the truth, that they read it and sign it. So everything written in credit application is being 10 reviewed and signed by the consumer.

11 Q. And if documents are being resigned 12 for the sale of a vehicle, do you keep the 13 original documents? 14 A. The original document is been

15 destroyed in front of the customer because 16 that contract is not valid no longer. You 17 cannot have two contracts for the same sale. 18 So the last contract that the customer signs 19 is final contract. All the other contracts 20 have been destroyed. You can't have two 21 contract for same sale. 22 Q. And you don't keep any copy of 23 those contracts, even with, for example, a 24 stamp that says "void" on it?

25 A. No.

Q. And if Mr. LaForest and 4

5 Ms. Francois filled out a credit application

6 together, why weren't applications for

7 financing made in both of their names? A. It could have been that Ms. 8

9 Francois requested to do the loan under her 10 name alone.

Q. Okay. Would there have been -- is 12 there any other reason why you think that 13 would have happened?

MR. GOODMAN: Object to the form.

A. No.

19

Q. Could you turn to subpoena 17 18 responses 519, please?

A. Okay.

20 Q. And this credit denial was a 21 response to an application for financing 22 submitted by you in Ms. Francois' name,

23 correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And how do you know that?

MR. GOODMAN: Okay, her question is, is there anything on this page that shows that it's you that did this?

THE WITNESS: No, it doesn't have my name on it.

10 Q. Would there be any other document 11 that would show that you were the one who was 12 working the deal?

A. No.

Q. Okay. But if your name appears, 15 for example, on the retail installment sales contract, could it be assumed that you were the one who was working the deal?

MR. GOODMAN: Object to form.

A. That is correct.

21 Q. And would there ever be a situation 22 where your name would be on the buyer's order

23 and the sales contract, but another finance

24 manager had been the one submitting the 25 credit applications?

November 30, 2022 173-176

Page 173 Page 175 Yessica K. Vallejo Yessica K. Vallejo 1 1 A. It could be. It happens sometime 2 2 Q. You can't answer what you have seen 3 if the finance is -- is not there, and I have 3 in credit denials? 4 to finalize for him, I will be the one A. I don't know. I am not a credit 5 signing the contract, even if he was the one 5 lender. I don't know the reasons because 6 that submit the deal. Remember, we are a 6 they deny customers. It's -- it's -- shows 7 team with five people, so we work together. 7 there four reasons, and you asking me about Q. Okay. And other than the retail 8 one of them. I am not credit lender. I 8 9 installment sales contract, and the buyer's 9 don't know the factors that affect this 10 order, would there be any other way to 10 credit decision, because I am not a lender. 11 determine who submitted the credit 11 You understand? I mean, I cannot tell you, 12 applications? 12 even if I want to. I don't know. 13 Q. Sure. But have you seen this 13 A. No, the only way is Deal Tracker 14 showing you under whose login was the credit 14 reason, "too many inquiries last twelve 15 app submitted. months"? Have you ever seen it on a credit Q. Can you turn to page subpoena denial, beside this one? 16 16 response 521, please? 17 A. I don't recall. 17 18 A. Okay. 18 Q. You don't remember any other 19 Q. And under the "reasons" for this 19 instance where one of the reasons was "too credit denial, do you see where it says, "too many inquiries in the last twelve months"? many inquiries last twelve months"? 21 21 MR. A. It shows in your credit report.

Q. So a consumer can have credit 11 denied based on the number of inquiries on 12 their credit report; is that correct?

> MR. GOODMAN: Objection to the form of that question.

A. I am not a credit lender. I do not 16 provide credit. I cannot answer that 17 question.

Q. But you have seen denials such as 19 this one, which lists number of inquiries 20 under reasons for the denial; is that correct?

> MR. GOODMAN: Objection to the form.

24 A. I am not a credit lender. I cannot 25 answer that question.

5 Q. When you receive credit denials, do 6 you ever explain to the consumer the reasons 7 listed for why they were denied?

8 A. Of course. I give them the paper, this paper. They can read it, and also they 10 get a letter from the lender explaining the same thing. 11

12 Q. So you would have given them -- you 13 would have given Farah Jean Francois this example, all --14

A. I would have showed her, of course. MR. GOODMAN: Let her finish the question.

THE WITNESS: Oh.

19 Q. You would have given Farah Jean 20 Francois all of the pages of the document that we're currently looking at; is that 21 22 correct?

23 A. I would have showed her the 24 reasons, because we have denials with other 25 lenders, you know, and what is the reason,

November 30, 2022 177-180

Page 177 Yessica K. Vallejo because we going through the lender that we went through. 3 Q. Sure. So would you just have, 4 like, showed her on your computer screen, you 5 know, like turned the computer screen so she 6 6 7 can see --7 A. Probably. 8 8 9 Q. -- or just read it to her, read 10 what it says? A. Probably, yes. 11 12 Q. Okay. 13 A. Most customer want to know, you 14 understand, and they entitle to. Q. Yeah, of course. And so at some 15 15 16 point you explained to consumer that a reason 17 for the credit denial was too many inquiries 18 last twelve months; is that correct? 19 MR. GOODMAN: Objection, 20 form. 21 A. The customer got a letter from this 22 lender to her house explaining the reasons of 23 the decline. Every lender, they send a 24 letter to the customer. But I probably did 25 deal, going to see an update. And when did 25 show her the reasons because she got

Page 179 Yessica K. Vallejo 2 not. I can't answer what you want me to answer. I have to tell you the truth. I don't know. Q. Okay. It's just not always --A. If I know, I tell you. If I don't know, I don't know. Q. And if you turn to the next page, 9 which is Bates-stamped subpoena responses 10 523, could you explain why there would be 11 another conditional approval from Capital 12 One, and this one is timestamped 5:13 p.m., 13 when there already was an approval that day 14 from Capital One at an earlier time? A. This is not a different approval. 16 It's the same exact approval. It's just that 17 it was an update made on it. It could've 18 been we update tax, that we update miles on 19 the car. That is not a different approval. 20 Or we rerun her credit, or we got different 21 approval. It's exact one. All these Capital 22 One approvals that you have, they are the 23 same approval. It's just that all the time 24 there's a change made to the structure of the Bates-stamped subpoena responses 522.

10 A. Okay, we're here.

Q. And under the reasons for this one, 11 12 there's something referenced "called

13 SageStream." What is "SageStream"? 14

A. I don't know.

Q. Okay. And you can see under the 15 "comments," there's a timestamp there of "May 30, 2020, 5:12 p.m." Do you have any reason 18 to believe that that timestamp is inaccurate?

12

A. No problem.

14 15 Q. One of the earlier deals, if you look at the page Bates-stamped subpoena responses 517, the amount approved here is 17 27,550, and then if we go back to the approval we were just looking at --19 20 MR. GOODMAN: 523?

21 Q. -- 523, that one is for the amount 25,550. Could you explain for me why that 23 changed?

24 A. Okay, so 5/17, you see the same 25 price of the car is $35,000?

A. Yes.

Q. And under the stipulations on this page it says, "multiple approvals for this 20 applicant, first contract in-house fund."

What does that mean?

A. That it was more than one approval 23 for her, and whichever first, they getting 24 in-house. That's the one they going to fund. 25 It could be that the customer change the car, Q. Well, what if --

7 A. I don't know, exactly, what was the 8 reason because they came back to resign. I can't recall exactly the reason. But they 10 came back to resign and we finalize the deal 11 that day.

12 Q. Sure. So if a consumer, for 13 example, really wants to get this deal done 14 that day, but they hadn't brought in proof of 15 income, so they would have to, you know, go 16 back and get it and come back a different 17 day, and they are, like, "no, I want to get 18 this done," would that be a reason to go with 19 the deal that doesn't require proof of 20 income? 21 MR.
